Information Bulletin No. BC-2000-032

To: All Washington Office and Field Officials
Attn: All Bureau of Land Management Employees Who Wear Uniforms

From: Director, National Business Center

Subject: Fiscal Year 2000 Uniform Ordering

Several new uniform items were recently added to the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) uniform program, including traditional-style shirts, pants, and shorts. To assist employees in selecting components and placing orders, this Information Bulletin provides current ordering information for all official BLM contemporary and traditional uniform components. It also provides ordering information for volunteer items, phone numbers for uniform vendors, and information on vendor flyers and web pages.

Components that may be worn with both uniform types are listed in both the Contemporary Uniform table and Traditional Uniform table below. Items annotated with an asterisk (*) may be worn by both regular BLM employees and law enforcement personnel.

Contemporary Uniform

The BLM Contemporary Uniform is intended for employees who desire a more relaxed, casual appearance. The following table lists all contemporary uniform components, applicable vendors, and prices:

Uniform Flyers and Website

WearGuard, Inc., provides uniform item photos and uniform ordering information through their web page at www.wearguard.com/blm

R&R Uniforms mailed new color flyers in late November 1999. Contact your State Uniform Coordinator or the National Uniform Coordinator, Candace Thatcher, if you need one.

Cop Shop, Etc., is in the process of developing a BLM flyer for the traditional style pants and shorts they carry; they will mail these to BLM State and Field offices within a few weeks.

Please direct questions or comments on the BLM uniform program to Candace Thatcher at 303-236-6369.
